FLASHFRAME

A photographer will be taking pictures of runners and walkers. Locate the purple action box on the Howling Night Run home page titled “2017 Race Photos” and click on “Get Photos!” to view and purchase photos.

Photos usually start uploading and becoming available the next day after the event. Some delays may occur and all pictures may not load together and may occur over multiple days. Please note that this event is at night and participants are highly encouraged to wear headlamps, which may affect the quality of photos produced.
